We all face unique challenges with our inner voice. Learn how to unlock potential by managing self-talk and develop the skills of listening to draw people out, ask questions, and know what to listen for.

Building Accountability with Clear Agreements

Learn how to make clear agreements that are mutually understood, specific and doable to increase accountability in yourself and others.

Giving and Receiving Feedback for Growth

Learn skills to become more capable and comfortable with feedback and applying what you learn to demonstrate professional growth.

Communicating with Presence

Learn how to expand your influence, project confidence and make a stronger impression in every interaction.

Each session includes practice supported by certified coaches that empowers you to build relationships through practicing skills in small groups, giving support as a peer coach, and receiving practical and relevant feedback to address real challenges and opportunities.
